National Carwash Solutions Partners With Vacutech Vacuum Systems

Grimes, Iowa (March 5, 2019) – National Carwash Solutions (NCS), the world’s premier provider of car wash systems, cleaning solutions and maintenance services is very pleased to announce its strategic partnership with Vacutech Vacuum Systems. Vacutech, based in Sheridan, WY, works with a variety of customers in commercial and industrial operations that require specialized vacuum systems- including car wash operators. Their central vacuum systems serve industrial applications including mining operations and manufacturing plus commercial applications ranging from airports to hotels to hospitals to car wash operations. Brothers John and Tom Tucker built Vacutech based on their commitment to manufacturing the highest performance vacuum systems combined with unparalleled customer care and after-sale support. Their experience in the car wash industry began with their work in their father’s central vacuum business over 60 years ago. John and Tom continued their work in the vacuum industry joining together to start Vacutech in 1997.

National Car Wash Solutions leads the car wash industry with premier brands including MacNeil, Ryko, TSS and CleanTouch. NCS has also partnered with the very best car wash distributors in North America including Hi-Performance Wash Systems, Auto-Clean, Arizona Car Wash Systems, Complete Car Wash, NuLook and Badger Land. These partnerships have solidified NCS’s dominant market position offering the nation’s only direct service network to meet the business needs of car wash operators across the country. Vacutech adds formidable fire power to NCS’s arsenal of bundled products and services to meet all of a customer’s car wash needs. Vacutech will continue to provide the same great sales, service and support to all customers as they have for over 20 years.

“We are always looking for strong strategic partners to join the NCS family” said Michael Gillen, CEO of NCS, “Vacutech is an absolute perfect fit to our brand portfolio. We’re thrilled to partner with such an innovative company that serves many industries, including car wash operators.”

“It was clear that National Carwash Solutions is the right long-term strategic partner for us. Only NCS has the resources, the brands and the market leadership that will fuel our growth in the car wash segment. We’re very excited to join the NCS family,” said John Tucker, CEO of Vacutech.
